BEAUTY IN BUSINESS.

Burnham's Plans in High Favor.

New San Francisco Shaping Up Ideally and Regardless of Expense.

Between Two and Three Millions of British Brewery Money Ready.

One Fifteen-Story Block to Have "Battleship Walls."

New Kearney Street.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Montgomery block, at the corner of Montgomery and Washington streets, which fortunately was spared by the flames, is to be the future home of the officials of the Western Pacific Railroad Company. The building will be ready for occupancy in a few days. In due time, the company will erect an office structure of its own. Chief Engineer Bogue reports that the earthquake has not interfered with the construction of the road, which is proceeding rapidly.

REWERIES' MILLIONS.

Between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 will be expended by the San Francisco Breweries, limited, in the restoration of its plants here and in San José. This is a British company, and its action is evidence that foreign capital has not been scared by the quake. The local agent has been notified by cable that funds for the rebuilding will be forthcoming as soon as architects can prepare the plans.

BIG HARDWARE HOUSE.

The Dunham, Carrigan and Hayden Wholesale Hardware Company will be one of the first to resume business. It is constructing a new building with 50,000 square feet of space on Kansas street, just west of Eighth, and will reopen in two weeks with a complete new stock.

FIFTEEN-STORY BUILDING.

Greater San Francisco is to have a fifteen-story steel building constructed along unusual lines. The frame for the George White building, on Geary street, near Stockton, was not damaged by fire, and it has been decided to change the plans for it and use no masonry. The walls are to be of steel plates, like the sides of a battleship. The building will cost $275,000, and will be ready for occupancy in two months.

COMMERCIAL BANKS.

The commercial banks of the city are to resume business in their own locations not later than June 1. This decision has been reached by the Executive Committee of the Clearinghouse. If it be found possible to set an earlier date for the opening, this will be done.

Several of the commercial banks will be opened in their old locations, but the majority will be found in new places of business. The Anglo-California Bank, the Bank of California, the American National, the Crocker-Woolworth National, the Union Trust Company and the Mercantile Trust Company will be enabled to resume operations from their old sites. The Wells Fargo-Nevada National Bank will have quarters with the Union Trust Company temporarily.

INSURANCE FIRE LOSSES.

Carefully compiled estimates, regarded as final and authentic, place the total losses of the American and foreign insurance companies in the San Francisco fire at $165,000,000—that is, the liabilities, if the policies be paid in full. Three months will elapse before the last of the claims will have been adjusted. This long delay is due to the fact that some of the companies have thousands of risks in the city, and these cannot all be acted upon at the same time. The smaller risks will be settled first, for the reason that they stand alone, whereas, on the larger buildings, each insured in several companies, the several agents must get together and agree upon a common percentage of the insurance to be paid.

DE YOUNG AND OTHERS.

M. H. de Young, Edward S. Rothschild, Frank Maskey and other owners of property on Kearny street and in that vicinity have taken steps to insure the rebuilding of that district on modern lines and the retention thereof of big business houses. These owners have agreed to rear fireproof steel structures that will withstand earthquake shocks or the ravages of flames. Former tenants will be given the preference in the leasing of the proposed blocks, and efforts will be made to have the structures constructed in conformity with the needs of the various businesses.

In order to stay the rush to new locations, it has been decided to give no consideration to those firms that have made long-term leases elsewhere.

If they desire to occupy their former places of business in the downtown district, they must declare themselves at once.

EXAMPLE OF ACTIVITY.

A notable example of the activity with which the crippled business houses are recovering their equilibrium is the resumption of work in the big factory of the Gantner & Mattern Company at the corner of Grove and Laguna streets. This firm of knitters will give employment to more than 300 men and women, and the factory will be operated night and day from now on. The factory buildings were not greatly damaged by the earthquake and the work of repair was hurried along. The buildings are to be enlarged and the force increased as soon as possible.

PHONE COMPANY'S PROGRESS.

The Pacific States Telephone Company is now putting in 'phones at the rate of 100 a day. It will soon be in a position to supply all that are needed. The company has located nearly all of its employees, and they are being put back to work at the old scale of wages. Within a week, the entire telephone system not destroyed by the flames will be in operation.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.

The temporary Emergency Hospital being erected on Jefferson Square is nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy in a few days. It is built on substantial lines, in order that it may be used for several years, pending the completion of permanent municipal buildings. The hospital will be fitted up with a complete new outfit of surgical and medical paraphernalia.

ENSEMBLE OF BEAUTY.

The Lachman estate is taking the lead in a project for the insuring of uniformity in the construction of buildings in the vicinity of the Donahue Monument, at the intersection of Market, Battery, Bush and First streets. It is proposed to make all structures on the several corners of a similar style of architecture, in order that the ensemble may be one of beauty. This idea is being followed by owners in other districts, and when the new city is completed there will be little of the incongruity that marked the one that was destroyed.

FAVORS BURNHAM PLANS.

The Sub-committee on Parks, Reservations, Boulevards and General Beautification has requested of the Mayor that it be consolidated with the Burnham Committee. This is important, as it indicates an intention of this sub-committee to conform to the Burnham project in preparing its plans for the beautification of the city.

COMBINATION KILLS INDIAN BY PTOMAIN POISONING.

Indiana Society Girl Expires in Great Agony After Partaking Freely of Vegetable and Fruit in Shortcake at Night—Like Bananas and Whisky.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RICHMOND (Ind.) May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Clara Reckers, 26 years of age and prominent in society, died late last night from ptomaine poisoning. An autopsy today showed that a combination of spinach and strawberry shortcake had resulted in chemical changes which caused death. Physicians worked for hours in an effort to save her, but she expired in great agony.

She had partaken freely of spinach at the noon meal and at supper she dined chiefly on shortcake with rich cream. An hour later she was in spasms. Examinations of remnants of both foods show that neither contained any poison, but that death was due to combination.

Physicians say the same effect would be produced by a frankfurter and bananas, then drinking whisky, the combination which killed Patrick Gilmore, the great bandmaster.

LOS ANGELES CAPITAL IN IT.

TEN-MILLION-DOLLAR CORPORATION FOR BUILDING.

C. E. Losa, C. Leonard and Jeremiah Deneen Promote a New Organization Which Has Closed Contracts for Work at San Francisco. Judge Henshaw's Interests.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A $10,000,000 corporation that will play an important part in the work of rebuilding San Francisco will be brought into existence when articles of incorporation are filed with the County Clerk tomorrow. The corporation, which is to be named the Los-Leonard-Deneen Company, will embrace much New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles capital.

In advance of completion of its organization, it has closed arrangements and made contracts for immense amounts of construction material that will soon be going into many big structures in the New San Francisco.

The three active factors in the new company, and whose names appear in the corporation's title, are C. E. Losa, C. Leonard and Jeremiah Deneen. Losa is widely known throughout the country as a contractor.

Judge Henshaw of the Supreme Court is one of the financial factors in the new combination, representing considerable local capital. A large amount of Los Angeles and New York capital is also behind the company.

From Glittering Throne the Autocrat of All the Russias Promises to Keep Inviolable the Institutions He Has Granted—Uncouth Representatives of the People Cheer "Free America"—The Douma Opened

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, May 10.—The Emperor's speech from the throne to the Douma today was as follows:

"The Supreme Providence which gave me the care of our fatherland has moved me to call to my assistance in legislative work elected representatives of the people. In the execution of a brilliant future for Russia, I greet in your persons the best men from the empire, whom I ordered my beloved subjects to choose from among themselves.

"A difficult work lies before you. I trust that love for your fatherland and your earnest desire to serve it will inspire and unite you.

"I shall keep inviolable the institutions which I have granted, with the firm assurance that you will devote all your strength to the service of your country, and especially to the needs of the peasantry which are so close to my heart, and to the education of the people and their economical welfare, remembering that to the dignity and prosperity of the state not only freedom, but order founded upon justice is necessary.

"I desire from my heart to see my people happy, and hand down to my son my empire secure, well-organized and enlightened.

"May God bless the work that lies before me, in unity with the Council of the Empire and the Imperial Douma. May this day be the moral revival of Russia, and the day for the renewal of its highest forces.

"Approach with solemnity the labors for which I call you, and be worthy of the responsibility put upon you by the Emperor and people.

"May God assist us."

ST. PETERSBURG, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] St. Petersburg awoke this morning on the occasion of the assembling of the Imperial Douma, to find the imperial standard floating over the Winter Palace, denoting the presence of the Emperor for the first time in many months.

The ceremony at the Palace was set for 1 o'clock. The Emperor, accompanied by the Empress and Empress Dowager, entered St. George's Hall at 2 o'clock, with all the members of the royal family and a brilliant suite.

The Emperor stood alone between the Empress before an altar, and the Archbishop of St. Petersburg offered prayer, accompanied by the court choir. After the altar had been removed, the Empress took a position on the right of the throne, on which the Emperor took his seat.

READS HIS SPEECH.

Accepting papers from the Chamberlain, the Emperor proceeded to read the speech from the throne. The speech was greeted with cheers from all except the members of the Douma, whose sullen silence was unpleasant to witness.

Many members of the Douma appeared in ordinary peasant dress, forming a strange contrast to the brilliant uniforms. The reading of the speech only occupied four minutes.

The Emperor, followed by the Empress, then slowly marched out of the hall to the sound of the national anthem, played by the Band of the Brethren's Guards.

During his reading the Emperor appeared slightly nervous, but spoke loudly without faltering.

Court Wits: presented a pathetic appearance as he stood, bent, and looking worn.

BEFORE THE OPENING.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, May 10.—As Baron Frederik, Minister of the Imperial House and aide de camp of the Emperor, made a formal announcement to the Emperor that the Council of the Empire and the Lower House of Parliament awaited his arrival in the throne room, the strains of the national hymn, played by an orchestra in a far-off gallery, announced the starting of the imperial procession. Three raps of the chamberlain's staves on the floor stilled the waiting assembly into instant silence.

A magnificent, but to foreign eyes, semi-barbaric pageant headed by two masters of ceremonials in gorgeous uniforms, stiff with gold, then appeared. These officials had sparkling orders across their breasts, one displaying the scarlet ribbon of the Alexander Nevsky order, and the other the blue ribbon of the St. Andrew order. These officials bore the golden keys of office on their hips. Before them walked two grooms and three court heralds with gold-tipped wands. Then, like a phalanx, came a resplendent array of court dignitaries and officials, the Grand Marshal of the court, the Lord High Chamberlain, the gentlemen of the Imperial Bed Chamber, the Master of the Horse, the Master of the Hounds, the Master of the Hunt, the Lord Steward, the High Cup Bearer and the High Carver, all with their breasts covered with decorations, and lated group during the celebration of the Te Deum, which followed.

This long and imposing ceremony was composed of prayers for the health and safety of the sovereign and his family and the new legislators, accompanied by the deep tones of the chanting of the bishops, priests and deacons and the melodious voices of the scarlet-robed boys of the celebrated imperial choir.

THE MONARCHS.

All eyes were turned on the Emperor, who bore himself proudly erect, joining in the Te Deum by crossing himself and making frequent responses. The Empress kept her eyes straight to the front during the long religious ceremony, glancing neither at the members of Parliament on their right nor on the courtiers at their left, scarcely moving a muscle, but the heavy flushing face of the young Empress showed that she was far from being at ease.

At the close of the Te Deum, the clergy retired chanting toward the palace chapel, and the Empresses moved up the hall and ascended the dais on the right of the throne, while the Grand Dukes moved forward and occupied the three lower steps on the same side. The Metropolitan, the Emperor's private chaplain, the members of the Holy Synod, the master of the imperial household, and the special aide-de-camp took their places at the foot of the throne to the left, the Emperor himself remaining alone in the center of the hall during the transformation.

ASCENDS THE THRONE.

When all those participating in the ceremony had taken their new places, there was a slight pause, and then the Emperor walked slowly twenty paces to the dais, ascended the throne, seated himself in the imperial chair, and one aide-de-camp stepped forward and presented to him the draft of his address. His Majesty rose, and looking down upon the wonderful scene, delivered his address to the representatives of the Russian millions.

The Emperor spoke with a firm, steady voice, which was heard distinctly in every corner of the hall, emphasizing deliberately every word. Such a hush fell on the assembly during the reading that the map of a camera shutter was sharply audible.

LONG CHEER FELLOWS.

The reading of the speech from the throne was not broken by the slightest attempt at applause, but the minute the Emperor finished, bowed to the members of Parliament and placed his foot on the step of the dais to descend, a long cheer broke forth which almost drowned the strains of the national anthem, "God Save the Emperor," which the orchestra in the balcony played while the procession departed. The enthusiasm, however, was confined to the courtiers and officers. Many of the members of Parliament were solemn and silent.

BUZZ OF DISCUSSION.

The assemblage stood motionless until the last member of the imperial family had left the hall, and then an excited buzz of discussion broke out as the legislators and courtiers discussed the significant passages of the Emperor's speech, especially the intimation of justice as well as freedom, the prosperity of the State, the attention that should be paid to the needs of the peasants and the amnesty proclamation.

BY YACHT TO PETERHOF.

After a short pause in the Romanoff gallery, the Emperor, the Empress and Grand Duke Michael returned through the Neva door to the waterfront where from a great float occupying the very side of the chapel on which the hall of grape fell during the ceremony of the blessing of the waters January 19, 1905, they embarked on a launch, and steamed rapidly down the river to the imperial yacht, the Alexander. As they stepped on deck, the imperial standard rose to the masthead, the yacht's lines were cast off, and she steamed down the bay to Peterhof.

WITTE PACES ALONE.

A pathetic figure in the scene at the palace was that of Count Witte, of whom the correspondent of the Associated Press caught a glimpse before the ceremony, pacing the corridor, entirely alone. Later, he entered the Throne Hall, clad in the gold and black uniform of a Secretary of State, one of the highest dignitaries in the court, which still remains to him, and with the ribbon of the Alexander Nevsky order on his breast. He took his place in the ranks of the old bureaucracy. Former Minister Durnovo was

COPPER SKIPS, CASH MISSING.

"Big" King Disappears and Creditors Mourn.

Borrowed Money All Along the Main Line.

Mystery of His Going Kept Secret by Police.

Patrolman W. A. King, known as "Big" King, has jumped town and left creditors on every side, who are anxiously looking for him and wondering if they ever will get the money back which they loaned him. King formerly patrolled the South Main street beat between First and Sixth streets and, it is said, borrowed money from every pawn shop, cigar stand and saloon on his beat.

A month ago he was transferred from the Main street beat to one in the outskirts of the city and most of his creditors are not aware that he "jumped" on April 24 and has not been heard of since. The Police Department has been making every effort to locate him, and has also endeavored in every way to keep the fact that he has left a secret.

It is said that he "got into" Joe Stevens, who runs a pawn shop near the corner of First and Main streets, for $15, and then went right down the line. He was called the "Handsome Boy Cop" by the women of the underworld who live on his beat, and he probably borrowed freely from them.

BORROWED EVERYWHERE.
He discounted his salary with George Arnold for several months ahead, according to statements made by those who investigated the case, and it is thought Mr. Arnold's loss will be about $50. This is the largest amount that King is known to have borrowed. In most instances he got all he could, but that usually amounted to between $5 and $10.

It is said King told the landlady of the rooming-house where he lived, on the corner of Fifth and Main streets, that he had a brother dying with consumption, and that he had to use all the money he could scrape together in caring for him. In this way, it is said, he was able to work on the sympathies of the woman, and beat her out of a month's room rent, also several small sums of money he borrowed.

The absconding patrolman is said to have borrowed $50 from Harris, the jeweler at First and Main streets, on the strength of his friendship, and the fact that he was paying attention to the daughter of the jeweler. It was commonly believed among the members of the police force that King and Miss Harris were to be married.

WAS EASY MONEY.
From S. A. Lowenstein, King also borrowed money. King told the story about the Central Police Station that Lowenstein intended setting him up in the saloon business. Lowenstein runs the Burbank bar, and said last night: "King borrowed money from me twice. I did not give him very much, and when he asked for the third loan I turned him down. I found he had borrowed money from every one on the street who would lend it to him, and I guess he forgot to pay it back. He was always well dressed, and seemed prosperous, and I guess he was on other people's money."

"Both of his brothers worked for me. One waited on the table, and the other was a cook. The youngest one left a month ago, but the other stayed on until just after the earthquake, when he telegraphed home and said the city was in ruins and he would have to have money to get out. His people wired him $250, and he left the 23d of last month. I guess 'Big' King got out the next day. No one thought of setting him up in the saloon business. It's safe to say he touched everybody on the street who would lend him anything for I know of cases all along. King was too much of a kid to be on the police force, and they were too easy with him."

The exact amount of King's debts is not known, but from the number of places he secured money it is thought that he skipped out with about $1000 of other people's money.

The missing patrolman was in the habit of bragging of his familiarity with a certain young married woman of Long Beach. Other members of the force knew of her and knew that her husband, who is many years her senior, was a wealthy man. King often said he could get all the money he needed from this Long Beach woman.

ALL FIREMAN'S FUND RECORDS DESTROYED.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.]
SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—The Fireman's Fund Insurance Company discovered last Saturday that its vault containing all the records of its insurance business done in San Francisco was destroyed. The falling of an immense steel girder, which broke off at the corner of the vault, gave the fire easy access to the records, including all policies, maps, etc. The announcement of this discovery was not made until last night, when President Burton made a statement describing the steps which have been taken by the company to meet the new conditions created by the destruction of the company's records.

A new company, to be known as the Fireman's Fund Insurance Corporation, is to be formed as soon as legal holidays cease and incorporation can be effected. The new corporation will have $1,000,000 capital and $1,000,000 surplus, thus insuring, according to President Burton, complete ability to meet every outstanding obligation, as the million capital and the million surplus is in addition to the assets of the old company, included in the new corporation, estimated at $5,000,000.

FEW RECORDS SAVED.
The number of records saved from the Hall of Records is less than was at first supposed. Only one book of mortgages, out of 143, and 800 books of deeds, out of 116, were saved, although the complete index of deeds, comprising eight volumes, was carried out to Jefferson square. The result, it is said, will be that nine-tenths of the property owners will have to prove title to their property. It is likely that many suits will be brought to quiet title. The abstract companies and the publications of deeds, mortgages and other documents affecting title, in the papers making a specialty of such things, will help owners of property and holders of mortgages to prove their claims. The assessment and tax rolls will also help in determining legal ownership and liabilities.

NO EXCUSE FOR CATARRH

Worst Cases Quickly Cured by Breathing Hyomei.

There is really not the slightest excuse for anyone having catarrh, now that Hyomei is so widely known and so easily obtained. The worst cases of catarrh are quickly cured, simply by breathing the remedy through the pocket-inhaler that comes with every outfit.

Used in this way for a few minutes four times a day, every particle of air that reaches the nose, throat and lungs is laden with germ-killing and health-giving Hyomei.

The sale of the old-fashioned stomach remedies for catarrh has been reduced to almost nothing since the introduction of Hyomei. Druggists will tell you that their sales on this out-of-date line have fallen off at least two-thirds in the last few years, while the demand for Hyomei has increased as its curative powers have become more widely known.

The complete outfit, consisting of a neat pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei costs only one dollar, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents, making Hyomei the most economical, as well as the most reliable method for curing catarrh.

If you cannot obtain Hyomei of your dealer, it will be forwarded by mail, postage paid, on receipt of price. Write today for a free sample bottle and consultation blank that will entitle you to the services of our medical department without charge. The R. T. Booth Company, Hyomei Building, Ithaca, N. Y.

who was in the habit of coming into the city to meet him, and he may have secured a large sum of money.

The opinions of several men, who are familiar with the details of the case, and who know King, coincide, and they think that he ran away with some woman. Where he is now is a mystery, as he has been able to cover his tracks completely so far.

At police headquarters the fact that King has "jumped" is kept a close secret, and if any one who has missed the patrolman wishes to inquire, the inquirer is told that King has "gone to the springs," or is on duty in the "alfalfa district."

DIPLOMAS A MURDER CLEW.
NOTED FOREIGNER VICTIM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
COLORADO SPRINGS (Colo.) May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The finding of an old blood-stained suitcase in the Garden of the Gods, in an isolated place, which is being investigated by the police, may disclose the disappearance of Vincent Bartineil, a foreigner of note.

A tin tube found in the case, at first believed to be an infernal machine, was opened and found to contain three diplomas. Two were engraved, in Italian, and bore the name of King Humbert of Italy, who was assassinated a few years ago. The other was in French, dated 1885, and so badly torn that little more than the name of Vincent Bartineil could be deciphered. All three diplomas bear his name, and appoint him to some high position. The diplomas bear the King's own seal, they are heavily embossed in gold, with a large Masonic emblem in one corner.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Mail Thief Bell's Respite Brief.

LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) May 10.—Alberty Bell, who had just finished a term in the State prison here for robbing the mails, was arrested as he left the prison gate. Bell is wanted at Philadelphia for robbing a mail pouch. He also wanted at Joplin and Kansas City, Mo., and other places on charge of mail-pouch robberies but the Pennsylvania charges were the most serious. Bell has already served two terms in jail for robbing, the mails.

Police of Four Cities Want Him.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Albert L. Lowenstein, alias Lower McDowell, who gained great notoriety a few years ago by posing as J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and Marcus A. Hanna, Jr., was arrested on other charges yesterday when he reached this city, after discharge from Sing Sing. He is wanted by the police of Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Astoria, Or., on swindling charges.

STRUCK BY LONG BEACH CAR.

Walter Smith, a negro living at Long Beach, was taken to the Receiving Hospital last night suffering from severe injuries, which he sustained by being struck by a Pacific Electric car. He was walking along the tracks in Long Beach. Smith's skull is probably fractured, and it is thought he has internal injuries. He is employed as a laborer in the beach town.

It was learned yesterday that the contents of the bank vaults are unharmed. One of the vaults of the Bank of California was opened and every article therein was found as perfect as the day it was placed there. Papers, coin and all other articles are intact. It is now believed that the vaults of the other banks may be opened without danger to their contents. This will enable the financial institutions to extend their business in the usual channels.

Business activity has been resumed once again in the Potrero district. Though the earthquake did considerable damage to a portion of the residence district there, the manufacturing section was practically unharmed, and such concerns as the Spreckels sugar refinery and the Koster barrel factory are running full blast with all the men working they can find and all the material required in sight.

FEARS UNFOUNDED.
It was at first feared that the factories in the Potrero were badly shaken and crippled by the shock and that operations would have to be suspended for some months at least. The sugar refinery escaped damage of any kind, and the other industrial plants were equally fortunate.

A report of the condition of the free public library was made yesterday by the sub-committee on library, of which R. B. Hale is chairman. At 11 P. M. there were 164,344 volumes in the main library and in branches 123,300, belonging to the main library in the city hall. At present 21,000 volumes remain in the branches, and there is supposed to be about 200,000 volumes held by borrowers from the main library. The buildings remaining are the McCreey and Fillmore-street branches. The McCreey building, valued at $500,000, was damaged to the extent of $2000 by the earthquake. The Fillmore-street building is valued at $3000.

Reports of the cooperating agencies of the Congregational Home Missionary Society were heard yesterday at the opening session of the convention at Chicago. In the afternoon a symposium on the "Undeveloped Resources of the Society" was held.

BOND RESERVE'S ACCOUNTS GROW.

HEAD EXAMINER KLING PRE-DICTS OVER A MILLION.

Company Profited Largely from Lapses and Mergers of Other Companies—Federal Authorities of Chicago Foretell Serving of Bench
Warrants.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Federal authorities of Chicago became active in the case of the American Bond Reserve Company today and forestalled the serving of bench warrants which had been brought from St. Louis against the officials of the Colonial Securities Company and the North American Investment Company. The local authorities asserted a much more serious case might be made out against the American Bond Reserve Company, which has absorbed the other two.

Late tonight, 468,000 accounts of the American Bond Reserve Company had been discovered by the examining accountants, and the head accountant said the work had scarcely begun.

"It is my opinion," said Head Accountant Kling, "that there will be more than one million accounts, none of which will amount to anything."

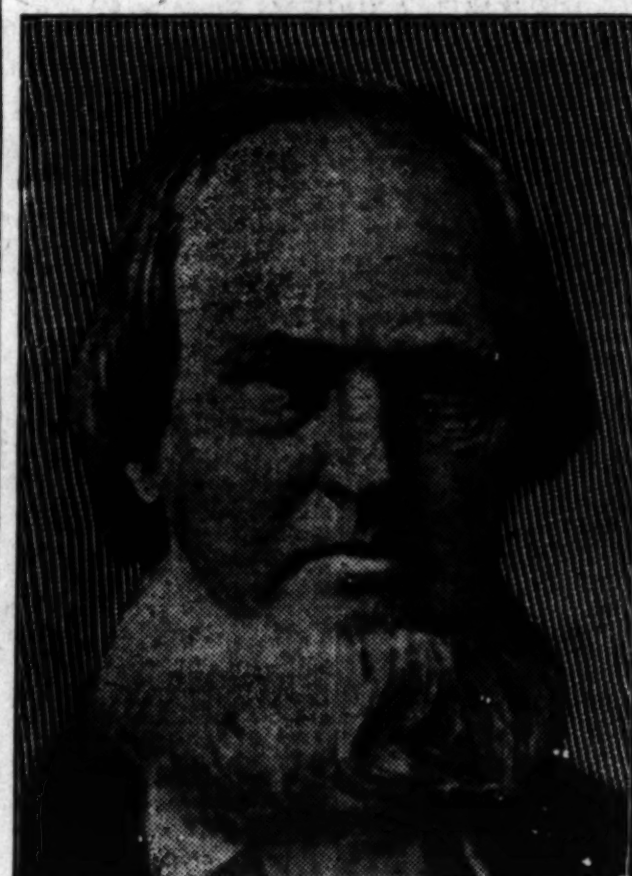

The company is said to have profited largely from lapses and mergers of other companies. The company was formed by the merger of the American Bond Reserve Company and the North American Investment Company, which were both founded in 1901.

FALLIERES OPENS EXPOSITION.
PARIS, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Fallieres, accompanied by his wife and daughter, today opened an exhibition of fine arts in the Palace of Bagatelle in the Bois du Boulogne.

CARL SCHURZ CRITICALLY ILL.
NEW YORK, May 10.—Carl Schurz is critically ill at his home here. At one time today he was thought to be dying, but rallied and was resting more comfortably late tonight. Mr. Schurz, who is 74 years of age, is suffering from a complication of disorders.

GROVER WILL NEVER AGAIN RUN.
PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Former President Cleveland, who is in Philadelphia attending the charities conference, today made the unequivocal declaration that he would never again be a candidate

Miraculous Cure of Throat and Lung Troubles at 85

COL. R. C. HUTCHISON

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

If you wish to keep strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions, and take no other medicine. It is dangerous to fill your system with drugs; they poison the body and depress the heart (quinine depresses the heart), while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the entire system. It is the only whiskey that is recognized as a medicine, and contains no fusel oil. This is a guarantee. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has stood severe tests for fifty years and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist or grocer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist" on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy's Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Col. R. C. Hutchison, of Chattanooga, Tenn., amazed at his almost miraculous return to health after seven years of suffering from throat and lung troubles extols Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which cured him when remedies usually prescribed for laryngitis and bronchitis had failed.

This brave and popular soldier, who is well known and universally liked throughout the South, expresses in writing the praiseworthy desire to meet face to face every one of his age in order to tell each personally the great benefit he has derived from his judicious use of Duffy's.

Colonel Hutchison's letter reads as follows: "I am 85 years old today, and I wish I could come face to face with everyone of my age in this country. I could give them an account of sickness dispelled and health restored which is little short of a miracle. For more than seven years I was subject to all manner of throat and lung troubles, and there was scarcely a day that I could leave my bed or reclining chair. My good old doctor who has been a life-long friend recommended Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey when the remedies usually prescribed for laryngitis and bronchitis failed. As you may imagine, the diseased condition was chronic by this time. I have taken Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey now for several years, and my health is better than it has been for twenty years. I believe I am permanently cured."—Colonel R. C. HUTCHISON, Chattanooga, Tenn.

HIS GOSPEL SONGS LIVE, DE YOE DIES.

THE EYES OF PROF. A. S. DE YOE, well known as a gospel singer and writer of gospel songs throughout the United States, yesterday closed in everlasting sleep, with his head pillowed on the breast of his faithful and accomplished wife.

This announcement of his death will perhaps be the first notice that many people will have had that he had lived in Los Angeles for almost a year, though they may have known and sung his songs for several decades. He was associated with E. O. Excell in the publication of some of his songs, and traveled and sang with Sam Jones, and was known as one of the sweetest-voiced baritone in America. He some time ago composed and dedicated to his devoted wife a sacred song, entitled, "I'll be Waiting for Thee in the Gate."

Prof. A. S. de Yoe, gospel singer who died yesterday, and his devoted wife to whom he dedicated his last sacred composition.

For many years Prof. de Yoe had been a resident of California, though he was a native of New York. Six years ago he met with an accident at Fresno, when a spirited team ran away with him and he was thrown violently to the ground. Two years after the accident he was stricken with paralysis, it is supposed from a blood-clot on the brain, and during the four years that have passed since then, he has been nursed like an infant by his wife, who never left him for a moment during his last alarming symptoms.

Almost a year ago, after having tried every available means of relief upon a permanent footing, as a resident of Los Angeles, he was brought to Los Angeles, and he has lived quietly at No. 141 Loma Drive. At times he seemed to improve, but there has been a steady though gradual decline. The end came as peacefully as the falling of a sunbeam yesterday morning, just as the birds were singing their morning lay at his window. He has lived a most beautiful life and died surrounded by his wife and some of his life-long friends. One of these was the venerable Rev. W. B. McEwen, with whom he had labored in evangelistic work, and who arrived but a few hours before his death. No more touching incident, unless it might be the grief of the bereaved wife, could be imagined than the grief of this aged man for his departed friend.

The deceased was in his fifty-first year and the only relative left to mourn him in this city is the widow. A brother will arrive from Modesto today but all other members of the family reside in New York. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at the residence on Loma Drive, at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. R. Compton, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. W. B. McEwen. The Masonic fraternity will then take charge of the body and conduct the services at Evergreen Cemetery.

During the long illness of Prof. de Yoe, his wife, who is an accomplished elocutionist, a graduate of several of the best art institutions in the country, and of wide experience as an instructor, has supported herself and her sick husband, and will continue her artistic work as a means of self-support.

SHRINERS' CLUB HERE TO STAY.

PERMANENT FOUNT OF ZEM-ZEM AT THIS MECCA.

Unique Organization Already Has Representatives Here from Ninety-five Shrines, With More Coming to Take Part in the Fiesta Parade. Entertainment of Visitors.

The visiting Shriner's Club, the unique organization of the whole of this great fraternity, is to be placed upon a permanent footing, as a testimonial to the newly-discovered Mecca of all good pilgrims.

The members of this club today represent ninety-five out of the ninety-eight Shrines in American jurisdiction. Dr. Grossman, the Potentate of Honolulu, is to arrive Saturday, and has already telegraphed that he desires to become a member.

Two other men, of the remaining two Shrines yet unrepresented, are now on their way to Los Angeles, and before the American representation will be complete.

Thus every shrine which answers to the Imperial Potentate's "Edict" will march in our Fiesta parade, and, in fact and truth, his pompous command will count for nothing at all.

The membership of the club is now about five hundred, but in the rapid increase is expected by Fiesta to reach 600. The president is Charles Hathaway, 2214 S. Temple, Syracuse, N. Y. The secretary is John T. Dewart, Al Koran Temple, Cleveland, O.

Elaborate plans are to be made for this splendid body's entry in the Fiesta parade, and the showing will be brilliant. Each man is to wear the insignia of his temple, and each temple in the American jurisdiction will be represented by a man carrying its particular flag. Every State in the Union will make a show.

Noble Bushman, from Pennsylvania, presented the president with a unique gavel yesterday. It made oak, in proper form, save for a strange indentation in its side. On close examination this is found to contain a heavy bullet. The wood was cut from an oak tree on Bushman's farm, which covers a part of the historic battlefield of Gettysburg.

Since the club is to be permanent, rooms will be leased for a considerable term and fitted with all the appurtenances of modern club life. The present quarters are at No. 317 South Broadway.

Further excursion plans are maturing for the guests of Al Malikah Temple. Today the members of Mecca and Kismet Temples, New York, will go to Catalina. Other parties will make excursions to Venice and Long Beach.

More Shriner's are expected in from day to day, many probable to remain over until Fiesta time.

Venice and the entire beach were in the hands of a thousand or more of the Shriner's yesterday afternoon. They came early and saw all that was to be seen and heard all that was going on. Something was doing every minute.

They were met by brass bands and escorted from the Midway to the pier, and from Pier avenue to the Masonic Building. They were officially welcomed by Mayor Dana Burke, who introduced Dorsey Patton, and this speaker made them feel at home. He turned the city over to them and they strolled the municipal park during a pleasant two hours.

OIL PROPERTY IS ATTACHED.

CREDITORS SWOOP ON EASTERN CONSOLIDATED.

Pike Faction Wins in Hard Fight for Control of Board of Directors and Local Officers of the Company Say They Will Quit—Plant at Bakersfield.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) BAKERSFIELD, May 10.—Three attachments amounting to over $25,000 were filed against the Eastern Consolidated Oil Company today in the County Recorder's office. The first is for the sum of $17,975 and is in favor of the American National Bank of Los Angeles. Charles A. Meyer and John Marshall hold attachments for the sums of $5810 and $4250 respectively.

Officers of the Eastern Consolidated Oil Company in this city stated late last night that the attachments filed at Bakersfield were the result of the election by stockholders held yesterday in Portland, Me., at which the opposition to the present management, headed by L. E. Pike, won the long fight for control of the board of directors.

The American National Bank of this city carried accommodation loans for the company and had, with other creditors, confidence in President L. J. Noyes and the present officers. But with the threatened change in management the bank and other creditors take the precaution of safeguarding their interests with attachments.

"The creditors of the company have no confidence in Mr. Pike," said an officer of the company last night. "Yet the property owned by the company is among the best oil properties in the State, with refinery and pipe lines. It is improbable that the officers here will consent to remain, identified with the new management."

DIDN'T FINISH WORLD TOUR.

NEW YORK, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Crum, who sailed from San Francisco, with their eight children, who started last October for a two years' trip around the world, after President Roosevelt had given them his hearty good wishes, returned today on the Princess Irene of the North German Lloyd line.

Mr. Crum, who is a member of the United States Senate, had been in Europe for some time, and had just returned from a tour of the continent. The family had a most successful trip, and had seen many of the world's wonders.

SPYER'S FINANCES IN BAD WAY.

Accountants at Work on Books of Rogers' Confidential Agency.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

NEW YORK, May 10.—Interest in the investigation into the mysterious death of Charles L. Spier, confidential agent of H. H. Rogers, was mainly confined today to the status of his financial affairs, which have been found to be badly involved. Accountants were at work on his books today, and it was reported that they have already discovered indications of discrepancies, which might account for suicide. The whereabouts of certain securities belonging to Rogers was one of the points investigated by the accountants.

Besides taking out a new life insurance policy for $75,000 during the last month, it was learned yesterday that Spier had renewed a $25,000 policy which he had permitted to lapse. He obtained this policy originally May 27, 1904, and paid the premium for one year. April 11 last, he visited the office of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and applied for reinstatement.

He then submitted to a medical examination, and was reported a first-class man. He paid the new premium. This was a twenty-year endowment policy, in favor of Mrs. Spier. He had been paying for some years premium on a $2500 policy in the Equitable Society. Rogers was asked last night regarding the developments of the investigation and is quoted by the Herald as follows: "This matter is one I am averse to discussing. As a matter of fact, it is too early to talk of the condition in which Spier left his affairs. It is true, expert accountants are going over his books and papers, and until they have completed their work it is impossible to exactly determine what result they will reach. They have thus far examined the stock books, and it will be necessary to go over the check and bank books and other papers before any authoritative statement can be made."

FOR NERVOUS PEOPLE
GOOD PLACES.
A Michigan Mother Preserved to Her Family by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
When the blood is impoverished the nerves starve and neuralgia or something more serious swiftly follows. Nervous people are generally pale people. By supplying through the blood those vital elements that the nerves need, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have performed those remarkable cures that make it impossible for any nervous sufferer to neglect them.
A mother case is that of Mrs. Peter Morrison, of No. 315 Eleventh street, Alpena, Mich., who writes as follows: "My trouble started with childbirth. After one of my children was born I had a kind of paralysis. I was very weak and my mouth was a little crooked. I was always tired and was so nervous that I could not bear to hear a dog bark or a bell ring—even the little bird in its cage would annoy me. My heart fluttered a great deal and I had dizzy spells. I was not able to be left alone."
"My doctor gave me different kinds of medicine, changing it several times. When it was evident that he could not help me he said he did not understand my case. This was three years ago and I was very much discouraged, when my brother, who had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, recommended them to me. I tried them and noticed a change for the better when I was taking the second box. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me and I have been well ever since. I now do all my own housework, sewing and washing for seven of us."
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have also cured diseases caused by impure or impoverished blood such as rheumatism, anemia and after-effects of the grip.
All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or the remedy will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

CATARRH STRICTLY RELIABLE
Is the most offensive disease and productive of discomfort. The sense of smell, taste, hearing and sight suffer; the throat and lungs become complicated and consumption is a frequent result. It causes a discharge from the nose so copious and offensive in many cases that patients feel as if their head was in a state of corruption. The breath becomes tainted and sometimes revoltingly offensive. The patient is subjected to repeated colds until it reaches the lung tissues. It produces more cough, more sputum than all other causes.

WEAK MEN
Cured at Once to Stay Cured
OUR FEES ARE REASONABLE

We make definite claims for our methods of treating men's diseases. We claim originality, distinctiveness, scientific correctness and unapproached success. Every one of these claims is backed by substantial proof. The best evidences of superiority are the cures themselves. Our treatment cures permanently those cases that no other treatment can cure. This test has been made over and over again, and a majority of our patients are men who have failed to obtain lasting benefit elsewhere.

Men
There are two ways of practicing economy. One way—consider price only. The other way—consider results. I Give You Results
Lasting Cures
My aim and object is to accomplish lasting satisfactory results, without loss of time and always at a reasonable fee.

Varicocele Cured 4 to 6 Days
Many men suffer from varicocele and have many times treated without satisfactory results. I want to say to all such that my treatment, personally applied, will cure you in 4 to 6 days, and the cure will be permanent.
Functional Decline
Termed Weakness by Some. The success I have had in restoring functional derangement has been a great surprise to many who have met with failure in former treatment. It's the right treatment applied in the right way that brings the satisfactory results. By my direct method all inflammation is removed, and free, healthy circulation is established.
Contracted Diseases
Failure to quickly cure these conditions is due to harsh measures, which are the direct cause for chronic conditions. My treatment is most cleanly and perfect. I cure Rectal, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Piles, Flatulence and Blood Diseases, Wasting Nerves and Chronic Conditions, causing functional derangement, impairing strength and vitality.
Hours—9 to 4, 7 to 8. Sundays, 9 to 12

A Live Wire
Every nerve is a live wire connecting some part of the body with the brain. They are so numerous that if you penetrate the skin with the point of a needle you will touch a nerve and receive a shock—pain it is called. Aches and pains come from a pressure, strain or injury to a nerve; the more prominent the nerve the greater the pain. When the pain comes from a large nerve it is called Neuralgia whether it be the facial nerve, or the heart, stomach, sciatic or other prominent nerve branch. To stop pain, then, you must relieve the strain or pressure upon the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this.
"I suffered intense pain, caused by neuralgia, doctors and used various medicines without getting relief until I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They cured me. They never fail to cure my headaches, and their use never leaves any bad after-effects."

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

"Accident" the Verdict.

Accidental death was the verdict returned by the coroner's jury in the case of Charles B. Hays, killed Tuesday afternoon by being run down by a night-seeing auto in charge of W. H. Davis.

Runaway Boy Found.

When Earl Hays, 14 years old, quarreled with his mother, Mrs. C. T. Hays, No. 2118 Vermont avenue, last Tuesday, he ran away from home. The police were notified yesterday and the boy was found in Long Beach at the home of relatives.

Michigan Society.

The Michigan Society will hold a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce assembly hall on Tuesday evening. A program has been provided, consisting of addresses, readings, vocal and instrumental music, and all Minnesotans are invited to be present.

To Welcome Them.

The following committee has been appointed to receive on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce the members of the Utah Press Club, who will arrive in this city May 14: A. W. Skinner, Fred L. Allen, Carl McElroy, W. D. Curtis, Fred Boyle, Jr., Harold S. Cook, J. S. Trew.

Ninth Ward Club.

The Ninth Ward Union Club met last night and formally organized to work in the coming political campaign. There were fifty-five members present. Twelve were admitted to membership. The organization is declared to be non-partisan. The meeting was held in Saver's Hall, No. 733 Aliso street.

Death of Mrs. Hughes.

Mrs. Della M. R. Hughes died yesterday at the home of her son, George Rice, No. 1308 Pasadena avenue, aged 52 years. Mrs. Hughes was born in Hillsboro, O., and was twice married. For the last seven years she had been living with her son in this city. Besides one son she leaves three sisters in Hillsboro. The funeral will be private and no flowers.

Distressed Brothers.

At a whist party to be held in Fraternal Brotherhood building on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of Occidental Branch, opportunity will be given to contribute to the fund for relief of members who suffered by the calamity at San Francisco.

Is Not Free.

Mrs. Lulu Epps, suspected of attempting to poison her husband, is still in a cell at the City Jail, despite reports to the contrary. Deputy District Attorney Fleming stated yesterday that he is not satisfied with the evidence so far secured by the police, and will not issue a complaint until he has been able to conduct a thorough investigation.

Business Property.

J. W. Cline Realty Company report the following recent sale of business property, on the south side of West Washington street, three storerooms, No. 2412, 2414, 2416, 100 feet west of Arlington avenue, lot 12x300 feet to alley. This property is improved with a one-story building, and leased for three years. Sold for A. E. Tomlinson and A. E. Dutcher to Mrs. C. F. Wimbory of Redlands, Cal.; consideration, $1700.

Not Dead, but Drunk.

When John Slicker fell asleep in his buggy last evening on Burlington avenue near Ninth street he little reckoned on the commotion his action would occasion. Slicker was very drunk, and after his prostrate form had been examined by numerous pedestrians, a hurry call was sent to the Police Station for an officer to take away the supposed corpse. Slicker had slept off the effects of his lag before being awakened, and was a lively corpse when a patrolman appeared and hustled him off to the City Jail.

Bullet in the Knee.

Charles Brown, a cab driver employed by the Reavia Carriage Company, No. 331 New High street, was accidentally shot by another cabman, Edward Moran, while the two were lounging in the company's office yesterday morning. Brown was taken to the Receiving Hospital where he is attempting to protect his friend by saying he shot himself. Moran was examining a revolver and it went off. The bullet glanced on the hardwood floor and struck Brown in the left knee, inflicting a painful, though not dangerous wound.

Fire—Mice and Matches?

A fire of unknown origin early yesterday morning partially destroyed a frame house at No. 430 College street, occupied as a grocery and dwelling by Roy Stanley. The department had a stream of water on the fire in remarkably quick time. The building belongs to the M. Kienan estate and is fully insured. The damage is estimated at about $400 while $200 damage was done to the furniture of the portion used as a dwelling. The stock and furniture were partially insured. It is believed that mice and matches are responsible.

BREVETTES.

Have you come to look around at our "selling out" sale? If not, you had better do so at once. Selling below cost. Diamonds, watches, jewelry. Going out of the jewelry business to continue as optician only. Joh. Von Breton, 250 S. Broadway.

MISSIONARIES MUSTN'T BUTT IN.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Action on the request which a Chinese Viceroy made at a dinner given in his honor by the mission boards of this city a few weeks ago, to the effect that missionaries in China be forbidden from interfering in Chinese civil courts has, says a morning paper, been taken by the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board, which maintains nearly 300 American missionaries in China. The board virtually grants the request of the Viceroy and has now decided, not that its missionaries must never go to the Chinese courts, but that no missionary must do so without approval of the mission station to which he may belong. This, it is said, will prevent individual errors which might otherwise be made.

SHANNON COPPER BONDS.

BOSTON, May 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Shannon copper now has about $150,000 cash in the treasury, and will retire $60,000 bonds September 1. There are $100,000 bonds current bills and $430,000 bonds outstanding.

FOR NINTH WARD.

The Ninth Ward Improvement Association will hold a meeting this evening at its headquarters, No. 2114 East First street. There are matters of importance to be discussed, and a large attendance is expected.

IS YOUR HOBBY RIDING?

PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Dillon & Hubbard, New York bond attorneys, have been asked for an opinion as to the legality of a bond election held on a holiday; their decision will settle the question whether a special election for ratifying improvement bonds will be held next Thursday.

West end property owners have filed a strenuous protest with the City Clerk against the opening of West Seventeenth street and Pacific avenue.

A young woman named Blanche Furdon was yesterday committed to the hospital for the insane at Patton. Incidentally she claimed that girls are being obtained for the white slave traffic in this city.

AT THE CITY HALL.

WHEELS CLOGGED WITH HOLIDAYS.

MAY CAUSE POSTPONEMENT OF BOND ELECTION.

Dillon & Hubbard, New York Bond Attorneys, Will Decide Whether Ratification Would Be Legal—Street Improvement Blocked, Council and Public Works Board Tied Up.

The wheels of the municipal machine have become badly clogged with Gov. Pardee's holiday proclamation. For three weeks the Council and the Board of Public Works have been practically without power to act. Civic improvements are at a standstill.

Contractors are prepared to break ground on more than fifty streets. The work has been awarded and all that is necessary is for the Board of Public Works to sign the contracts. But this the board cannot do by reason of the holiday; and so delicate is the texture of the Yvonne Act that to start grading before the papers are all signed might invalidate the assessment bonds.

These is a grave legal question whether the city can hold the special election on May 17 for voting on municipal improvement bonds. The ordinance calling the election has been published only on holidays and the date of election falls on a holiday.

City Attorney Mathews has expressed an opinion that the election is not legally held and that if it is voted, would be valid. But he has supplemented this by sending to Dillon & Hubbard, New York City bond experts, asking them for an opinion whether the holidays are liable to throw a cloud on the title of the bonds. Marketing municipal securities is at all times a critical financial operation. The bonds are to be forty-year serials. To secure them the purchaser must pay more than $1,000,000 in gold and part of that money will not be repaid for a generation and a half. That is a long time for attorneys to use in poking holes in municipal procedure. The rate of interest is but 4 per cent. If there is even the shadow of a doubt as to the validity of the bonds they will never be marketed.

Some of the legislators are in favor of calling the election off. They say it is hard enough to market bonds without everything is propitious, and they fear that this holiday question will prove a bar to the sale.

Assistant City Attorney Hewitt said yesterday that he expects to receive a reply by Monday from Dillon & Hubbard as to the probable effect of the holidays on the sale of the bonds. Unless the bond experts give their unqualified indorsement to a special election no ballots will be cast on May 17.

A number of ordinances passed by the Council three weeks ago still lie on the City Clerk's desk unapproved. The Mayor cannot pass upon them until the holiday season is ended.

Councilman Smith chafes at the delay. Mr. Smith has a gentle feud with the street-railway companies. He wants them to stop their cars at the crossings in the business section; they insist on maintaining the new rule that the cars shall stop a length beyond the crossings. Two days before the earthquake the Council passed an ordinance directing the companies to stop at the crossings. This ordinance was intercepted in its final adoption by the holidays. And all this time Councilman Smith is compelled to stand idly by while the cars glide past the crossings and stop a car length up the street.

On the desk of the clerk of the Board of Public Works are petitions for street improvement totaling more than $300,000. Property owners are waiting for the improvements; they have the money to pay for the work, and contractors have teams waiting in the corral, but the holidays form a bar that neither can pass.

With the Supreme Court reposes peacefully the case affecting the initiative which is to decide the present fate of the Gothenberg system of saloon regulation. The court cannot render its decision until the holidays are over. The proponents of the Gothenberg plan have their petitions all ready for filing in case the court should sustain the legality of the initiative action of our city charter.

STRENUOUS PROTEST.

WEST ENDERS ACTIVE.

Property owners on Vargas street have filed with the City Clerk a strenuous protest against the opening of Seventeenth street from Pacific avenue to Millard avenue, and of Pacific avenue into Vargas street.

Here are some of the reasons for the protest as set forth by west end citizens: "Pacific avenue is a narrow lane running in the rear of lots facing on Millard avenue; it is really an alley and not a street."

"Pacific avenue south of Sixteenth street does not contain a single house of any value."

"The switch of the Los Angeles-Pacific Railroad occupies the so-called Pacific avenue for some distance south of Sixteenth street and renders the street worthless as a thoroughfare."

"To open Pacific avenue into Vargas street would ruin three improved lots."

"Not a single property owner residing on Pacific avenue or on Vargas street has signed the petition for opening the street."

"The property owners went before the Board of Public Works yesterday to ask that immediate action be taken denying the petition. But the board sent the protest to the engineer for a report as to property frontage."

"Must Redevelop."

No responses were received to the advertisement for bids for illumination.

ing the ornamental lighting systems on Main and Hill streets and the Board of Public Works has directed the City Clerk to readvertise as soon as the holiday season is over. The electricians were paid for by the property owners on the two streets; the city is expected to pay for the illumination.

One Free Day. City Tax Collector Johnson has received notification that taxes will not become delinquent until one "free day" after the holidays are over. The delinquencies this year are less than for a number of years, notwithstanding the fact that the tax roll is 20 per cent. greater than any previous one. But for the earthquake taxes would have become delinquent on April 20.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

WEAK-MINDED NOW INSANE.

BLANCHE FURDON CLAIMS TO HAVE BEEN TRAPPED.

Says She Was Given Knockout Drops by a Santa Monica Woman, and Led Into Evil Courtes, from Which She Emerges to Go to the Highland Asylum.

Blanche Furdon was yesterday ordered committed to the State Hospital at Patton by Judge Gibbs, and incidental to her examination certain facts came out that appeared to indicate that the white slave traffic is carried on in Los Angeles in the open.

The girl is about twenty-four years of age, and has for years been feeble-minded—indeed, at the present time her form of insanity is more an accentuation of the weak mentality, rather than an acute form of mania. Owing to her mental condition, she was susceptible to outside influences, and about eight months ago Blanche was taken by her sister, Mrs. Ella Storey, to the Hansome Home. The quietude of the home might have suited her had it not been that a Mrs. Smith—that was the name she gave—who lives at Santa Monica, by some means got possession of the girl. She took her for a drive, and when the opportunity offered, it is said, gave her knockout drops, and then she was taken to a house where she was kept for some time.

Blanche was living at No. 421 Hill street with a man named John Ingie as his wife. When Ingie realized that she was acting irrationally he abandoned her, and in due course she was arrested on the insanity charge. Her father is a member of the Soldiers' Home, and stated that he had seen little of his daughter since her arrest. He said that the woman who gave the name of "Mrs. Smith" had taken other girls in just the same way that she had taken her, and was particularly, he mentioned, inasmuch as the girl concerned was her personal friend.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES, MISCELLANEOUS. The Pacific Electric Railway Company has begun its campaign against the proposed extension of the line to the Pacific Electric depot on Saturday.

EXPENSIVE MALADY. John Risk, 37 years of age, a plumber by trade, was yesterday sent to the asylum at Patton by Judge Gibbs.

CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR. Another Richmond in the Field of Contest for the Chief Executive Office of the City.

It crops out that quiet but effective work has been going on in the various wards and precincts of Los Angeles in behalf of the candidacy of Dr. J. W. Jones for the Mayoralty. Dr. Jones is an old resident of the city, having many staunch friends and admirers who seem eager to burden him with the sorrows of political office.

When seen yesterday in reference to the fight that is being made for him, Dr. Jones said he had no desire to enter politics as an office seeker, having heretofore always contented himself with working for the success of the Republican party as a private in the ranks. He added that his friends here were responsible for the work that is being done in his behalf, and that, while he does not desire to appear as seeking the Republic's nomination for mayor, he could not deny but he would regard his selection as an honor not to be declined.

POLICE COURTS.

MANY CASES PENDING. The dockets in the three departments of the Police Court are crowded and there are nearly twice as many prisoners in the city jail as there are cells supposed to accommodate, but everything is at a standstill. Five important cases were called in Justice Ross's court yesterday, but all had to be postponed to the next day.

BOY THIEF SQUEALS.

When Arrested Young Wilcox Tells of Gang of 'Kids' Who Are Successful Shoplifters.

Through the arrest of Robert Wilcox, a 14-year-old boy, the police last night learned of the operation of a gang of more than a dozen boys who have been successfully shoplifting from all of the large retail stores for several weeks past.

Young Wilcox when searched at the Police Station, was found to have a quantity of trinkets in his possession, all of which he admitted having stolen from various stores. The lad lives with his parents at No. 1148 South Olive street and took his arrest with little concern, stating that all of the "kids" in his neighborhood stole goods in the same way.

Before being taken to the Detention Home for the night the lad was given a thorough cross-examination, and the police secured information which will enable them to make a number of other arrests.

The "GERM OF LIFE" IN A BOOKLET
Is Salesmanship

Pictures?—They're all right. So is good printing. So is attractive type. So is the color scheme, size and stock. But the essential quality in booklets as in your physical body or a steam engine, or a trolley-wire is life, motive power, energy.

In a booklet, the germ of life is salesmanship. Whether the booklet is to transform merchandise into cash or to fill up a hotel or summer resort, or to sell real estate or promote the growth of a town or community, the end must be accomplished by salesmanship in one form or another.

Mac Intyre booklets have a way of bringing out the selling points of a proposition and imprinting them on the brain of a reader.

Some day when you're feeling dull, read a Mac Intyre booklet and watch yourself grow enthusiastic.

Notice to Shippers

Consign all shipments of ore, cyanides, gold dust, gold or silver bullion to Vallejo Junction, California. Settlements therefor will be made from temporary quarters at U. S. Mint, San Francisco.

LARGE STOCKS OF GOODS ON HAND AND EN ROUTE FROM THE EAST.

Pig lead, loaded shells and bluestone can be shipped immediately. Orders for bar solder filled on short notice; sheet lead, lead pipe, traps, wire solder, in about three weeks.

Until San Francisco banks are open for regular business remittances should be made either by postal order, bank drafts on New York, Chicago or St. Louis, or checks on Oakland banks.

NO PERSON

Would Make Such a Proposition to the People of Los Angeles Unless They Were Absolutely Sure.

Did you ever know or hear of a person who would offer to return every dollar you paid him if he could not build up health and create strength and vitality for old people, weak, sickly women and children and the convalescent, create an appetite, cure stomach troubles, make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy? Or cure hacking coughs, chronic colds, throat and bronchial troubles?

This is exactly the offer The Owl Drug Co. makes to every person in Los Angeles.

A member of the above firm says: "Our offer is based upon what we believe to be the greatest strength-creator and health-restorer known to medicine, Vinol, which is the up-to-date form of administering cod liver oil, recommended for centuries as the grandest of all body-building agents for wasted human strength and vitality."

"In Vinol we have simply done away with the useless system-chugging oil, and given the people all the medicinal and nutritive elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod livers, and we have never sold in our store a medicine of more intrinsic value."

As a body-builder and strength-creator for old people, weak women, children, after sickness, and for all pulmonary diseases, its fame has spread so far that it is now guaranteed by over two thousand of the leading druggists of the country, and especially by us, The Owl Drug Co., 350 S. Spring St.

TIMELY SWAT BEAT FR

FANCY was never before so gratified on the Los Angeles scene as when they saw one of the hot players here since the season.

It was nip-and-tuck from the first inning, a few innings, and finally won the eighth with one run.

Then in the fifth inning, a lead of two runs was made, and the score in the seventh was 2-0.

CITY CHILDREN BELONGS HERE.

City Children. Your little faces like the sun to dream. Shut in some room, their eyes to dream. Of distant glens where rivers run. And winds at evening whistle. You miss the tranquil moon's tere beam. The wide, untroubled earth, light gleam. All the old beauty meant to you.

The clamor of the city's noise. Not the rich silence of the Spring glade. The sun-swept spaces which made. You do not know; white morning. Are not your portion through the year. O little flowers that blossom fade! (Charles Hanson Town, in body's.)

Black Silks Under Value

To women who are silk wise these black taffetas and other weaves demonstrate their own value, to women who are otherwise the reputation of this store for carrying only dependable silks, the best qualities at every given price, is sufficient guarantee of worth.

Don't know when you'll be offered equally good opportunities to save on black silks for gowns, ston or long cloaks, separate waists or linings.

Petticoats of Silk—Some at $5

Women who like to keep abreast of the fashions have a way of dropping in at Coulter's, because that which is newest and best always finds first representation here.

Among petticoats at a moderate price we know of no better values than those in black and favored colors, at five dollars each.

In guaranteed taffetas we show many models in good full cut, for the wide circular skirts, at $7.50, $10, $13, $14 and $18, pleated, ruffled and circular flounced, of black or colored silks.

Nothing hap-hazard or ill-chosen can be found among the whole splendid Spring collection. Of course we've the higher priced skirts as well, luxurious creations of two-toned silks, with contrasting stripes, or with floral sprays over their surface.

CHINESE DAILY EDITORS MAKE "STORIES" TO FIT THE TYPE.

THESE are busy days in Los Angeles Chinatown. Local Chinese are rejoicing in the sudden waxing great of their population, and they freely predict that Los Angeles Chinatown henceforth will be the most important colony of the kind in America.

What with the establishment of their leading daily newspaper in this city, the coming of the largest importers of Chinese and oriental goods with the avowed intention of making Los Angeles the distributing point for the whole continent, the arrival of men of affairs in Chinese swiftness, as well as the swarming hither of hundreds of Chinese laborers, there are activities in Chinatown never before equaled.

Probably the most interest expressed in these larger affairs is that taken in the forthcoming of "Mon Hing Yet Bo," the Daily Chinese World. This is an event of more than usual importance, its daily progress toward the point of "going to press" is watched by Chinese of all degrees with much solicitude.

The first Los Angeles issue was to have appeared Tuesday morning. Impossible, said the typesetters, and you would be inclined to agree with them, if you could drop into the improvised printing office in the upper rooms of the Chinese Empire Reform Association building on Apollonia street. These printers have to hop about from one side of the room to the other in order to reach the characters in their "case." Imagine a printer's type case is large as the side of a room, filled with 3000 different characters; then the confusion of a newly-established office, and the difficulties of finding that some of the most important proverbial or hen tracks are shy, and that the "piece" must be rewritten so as to eliminate the use of such words that these missing characters represent.

The "brainery" and composing room of the Chinese World, the daily which will be issued tomorrow morning. The man seated in a chair is Editor-in-Chief Chun Yi Om.

But the Chinese printers are buckling to it, and are now certain that the paper will make its first regular appearance tomorrow morning.

Editor-in-Chief Chun Yi Om, who is here as the guest of Dr. Tom, is marshaling his forces; and News Editor Ben O. Yang, is rewriting the "pieces" so as to make them fit the type. Translator Lee On is getting the freshest ideas from the American exchanges and Band Hall, who is the Chinese star reporter, is making himself familiar with Los Angeles details of interest to the Chinese world. A reporter has been stationed in Oakland, and a large section of "Mon Hing Yet Bo" will be devoted to Oakland and San Francisco news.

While many Chinese merchants are here spying out the land, they defer making definite arrangements for opening business establishments pending settlement of their fire insurance claims. Every Chinese merchant carried fire insurance. It is believed not an objection will be raised to a single Chinese claim. With this insurance money as a basis for operations, many will open business houses here. It is said several large shipments of goods have already been ordered to Los Angeles from Chinese ports.

It was reported yesterday that within the ensuing week 300 more Chinese will arrive from Oakland and the San Francisco camps. Los Angeles Chinatown has shown a wonderful assimilative power. Every home is filled with guests. Prominent members of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce say they will be able to care for the refugees without providing any general relief camp or eating stations—that individual hospitality will be extended the newcomers by the householders until the strangers are enabled to own their own homes.

CALF WAS STUFFED.

ached to one of the relief hospitals, and had a Red Cross badge on his arm as big as a dinner plate. And he had worked; he was no dilettante loafer, standing six feet, with the physique of an athlete, he had won the regard of everybody by his unflagging energy and buoyant spirits. He was one of their very best men. True, he had been under arrest twice for insanity, and had been locked up in the gulchhouse, but that was because he had been under a heavy strain and had paid just a little too close attention to the medical supplies.

While the young man was working in such a worthy manner no one attempted to interfere with him. But when the first horror of the situation began to tone down, young Flint jumped his job and returned to Santa Barbara. At the Hotel Potter they looked askance at him, but he registered, and they didn't know what to do. They were advised from here to give him all the accommodation he required, but to draw the line at real money.

JUST COULDN'T LEAVE.

By a friendly interference Flint was inveigled to come to Los Angeles, and after a heart-to-heart talk he seemed to realize the propriety of his returning home to Pittsburgh. His traps were gathered together, ticket obtained and everything seemed in a fair way of straightening out.

Two real good fellows had been engaged to chum in with Flint while en route and jointly stand in loco parentis to him, so that he would not, either by accident or intention, fall by the wayside.

Flint was on the train, and as he felt it slide out of La Grande Depot he grabbed his valise and made a flying leap that landed him almost on his head. The two watchful guardians jumped, too, and in doing that they gave the whole train a start.

Flint was huffy for a while. He would go of his own volition, or else not go at all. Another talk with his fidus Achates and it was conceded that he was dead right; that he should have his ticket and a small bunch of money to go East by himself, and after being stroked down he was ready for another start.

It was fully realized, however, that he would never land at Pittsburgh if he went alone, and this time a very smooth railroad man was selected to play the part of mentor, all unknown to Flint. This railroad man is a born wit and story teller. He was warned that he must be wary when passing through New Mexico, for the young fellow had "punched" cattle through that country and he thought it about the best life worth living.

THE FATTED CALF.

Everything went well. Flint discovered that the chap that had the berth next to him was about the biggest all-round good fellow that he had struck. Better still, he discovered that his new friend was a railroad man and could put him next to lots of things he wanted to know. Sliding along through Northeastern Arizona, he was introduced to the engineer and kept a seat in the cab, helping out in small jobs. Albuquerque was passed in the night while Flint was busy polishing brass, and the train traversed the cattle country while he was having the time of his life as if the welfare of the trainload of people depended upon his exertions alone.

And now the young fellow is entertaining his railroad friend at his father's Pittsburgh mansion. The prodigal is home again, and the fatted calf was a fine specimen of its kind. But he

A FULL SIZE LOT AT GLENDALE

Don't confuse this with "cheap" property. It's as good as any in the land. Location, Soil, Water, Surroundings — all the best.

Own Your Home! Stop Paying Rent!

We want twenty more houses at once in our Glendale Valley View Tract, and in order to get them we will give home-builders 25 per cent. discount off the already low price of lots. This for the first five. The next five will get 20 per cent.; the next five, 15 per cent.; and the next, 10 per cent.

Lots are all 50 feet, lie high and slightly. Finest view in Glendale. Our tract is 700 feet from the car line, right in the heart of Glendale. Elevation, 600 feet. Purest mountain water Rich soil. Every city advantage and country comfort.

By taking advantage of this offer we can sell you a $400 lot for $300—a $300 lot for $225—a $225 lot for $168.50.

Streets are all graded and oiled, and on the bulk of the lots cement walks and curbs are laid. Electric light to all. Water piped under heavy pressure to every lot.

Come in and talk it over. It won't cost you a cent to investigate and see the property. It's gilt edge. No cheap subdivision, but a high class, low priced property in the most beautiful of Los Angeles' suburban towns.

FAIR WARNING TO ALL

This is the last opportunity to secure Walnut Lawn lots at present prices. If there are any lots left after Tuesday, May 15, at 5:30 p. m., on Whitsett avenue, they will be advanced to $1000 each and other lots then left priced from $650 up, will positively be advanced 10 per cent. This gives all prospective buyers an opportunity to make their selections any time between now and next Tuesday and save money.

The Only Tract Of Its Class

There are many handsome home neighborhoods in the suburbs of Los Angeles, but none that equal Walnut Lawn. The beauty of its trees alone is an unmatched asset even in this country where trees grow rapidly. The trees of Walnut Lawn represent 20 years of constant cultivation. In quantity and quality their yield has no rival in the State. Pretty bungalows built among the trees seem like fairy palaces embowered in a wreath of green foliage. Whether you wish to buy a lot for home or investment, by all means see Walnut Lawn.

CEMENT RATE GETS BIG CUT.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TO HELP WESTERN BUILDING.

Scarcity of Product Causes Railroad to Make Less Than Half Former Charge from Eastern Points. Preference Given All San Francisco-bound Structural Material.

With the object in view of facilitating the upbuilding of San Francisco and at the same time meeting the big demands made for building materials in Los Angeles, the freight traffic officials of the Southern Pacific Railroad have announced a very low freight rate in cement from eastern points.

The new rate will be 35 cents per hundred weight from all Missouri River points to the Coast, which will make a rate of 47 1/2 cents from Chicago and Ohio points.

The old rate was 75 cents, showing the cut to be a radical one. It goes into effect Saturday morning, May 12.

There has been a scarcity in cement in Los Angeles and other California cities during the last few months, and the big demand now springing up in San Francisco for the material has practically cleared the market of all holdings.

The Southern Pacific Railroad has issued orders to give all shipments of building materials intended for San Francisco preference over all other freight.

Orders for thousands of tons of structural steel have been placed in Pittsburgh and Chicago. The steel concerns are giving the San Francisco orders preference over other business and in turn the Southern Pacific will route all shipments direct and with no delay permitted.

District Freight Agent Ralph Thielson of the Express, issued a statement yesterday that the Southern Pacific's terminals in San Francisco and Oakland had been unharmed, notwithstanding the reports to the contrary sent out from San Francisco.

"Our freight stations, warehouses, sidings and yard service are in the same condition they always have been. We are prepared to handle with the least possible delay all freight sent to San Francisco, and shows that traffic has reached its normal stage."

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company's docks also are reported in the best of condition, and boats are leaving and entering there regularly.

RAISING THE MONEY.

Building Fund for the Young Men's Christian Association Continues Up Toward the Mark.

Steadily the edges are being clipped from the balance yet needed to complete the Y.M.C.A. building fund, and the committee is undaunted in its determination to have it all in by May 21.

The statement at the close of yesterday is as follows: Previously reported, $257,504; Barker Brothers, $1000; Frank X. Pfandinger, $500; Dr. H. G. Brainerd, $500; J. Cook, $100; N. B. Blackstone, $200; Young Men's Centennial Band, $200; M. V. Avery, $100; Dr. F. D. Bulford, $100; J. H. Shankland, $100; A. T. Jergins, $100; S. I. Merrill, $100; W. W. Montague & Co., $100; Brearley & Benedict, $50; Merchants' Loan and Trust Company, $50; total, $256,794. Minimum amount still to be raised, $109,206.

Heavy clouds, a south wind and showers were features of the weather yesterday at San Jose. Hay is being cut and will be damaged.

Watts Park Tract

is located 3 miles south of Los Angeles, and on the highest point of ground in the entire town of Watts.

Watts Park Tract is the ONLY tract located immediately at the junction point of the Pacific Electric Railway and the Long Beach and San Pedro branch of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Watts Park Tract is NOT an experiment. Every foot of property in a direct line between it and Sixth and Main Streets, Los Angeles, is subdivided and improved with houses.

Watts Park Tract is building up rapidly—21 houses being erected or in process of building.

Watts Park Tract soil is some of the finest in this county, producing alfalfa, berries, celery and vegetables of all kinds to perfection. Finest of artesian water in abundance.

Watts Park Tract is only 15 minutes' ride to Sixth and Main Streets: fare 8 cents by book; car service first-class.

THE COMING BRILLIANT FIESTA.

THE special Fiesta Number of The Times will be issued the day following the close of the celebration, which is now definitely announced to begin on the 21st of this month. The Fiesta will be greater and grander than ever. Floats for the night parade, already completed, are the handsomest ever constructed for any fête in the United States, and entries for the floral parade are unusually numerous and promise to be really magnificent.

Citizens who have the interest of this great young city at heart will now put their shoulders to the wheel and make the forthcoming Fiesta de las Flores the grandest, the biggest and the best ever! It is a celebration that will redound to the credit of all Southern California and of its progressive citizens.

EXHORTS WITH "CUSS" WORDS.

CRAPPIED STOLE PIGEON HAS HIS BIBLE HANDY.

Yegman, When Arrested, Says He Gives Spiritual Advice, but Police Say He Acts as Spy for Crooks to Keep Them Posted on Movements of Detectives.

A yeegman in the role of a Methodist exhorter is what Patrolman Jack Murphy calls E. Worlow, whom he arrested in the Plaza yesterday morning. The man is a cripple, one of his legs having been amputated, and he walks with an iron crutch.

He has long been hanging around the Plaza and in the toughest resorts in the city, but always has his Bible handy when policemen are near. Patrolman Murphy says the man is a stool pigeon for crooks, and is a dangerous character. Yesterday morning, when the policeman asked Worlow what he was doing hanging around the Plaza so much, Worlow let loose such a volley of oaths that even the veteran patrolman was staggered. He was tempted to ask where Worlow had gained such a vocabulary of "cuss" words, when he espied a knife, with a blade six inches long, in the man's pocket.

Worlow refused to give up the knife, and cursed Murphy roundly when he forcibly took it. The patrolman locked Worlow up on general principles. In the captain's office Worlow said he was a member of the Methodist church, an exhorter, and worked with the people of the lower class. He said he was never without his Bible, so that he could always aid any one in need of spiritual advice and comfort.

He explained the purpose of the knife in his pocket by saying he made his living by peeling vegetables in restaurants, and used the knife for that purpose. When asked where he had worked he was unable to name a restaurant in which he had been employed during the past three months.

Patrolman Murphy says Worlow keeps the various patrolmen and detectives "spotted," and tells his friends, who are mostly of the same class, that he is a member of the police force. He also keeps posted on the officers who are working in plain clothes, and tips them off to the ones for whom the detectives are looking.

No charge has been placed against the fake exhorter, but he will be held in jail until every member of the force gets a good look at him, and then he will probably be forced to quit haunting the dives in the lower end of town. Nearly all the time the crooks working in this city have crimples watching the police, while pretending to sell pencils or do other things, and the police believe that Worlow is supported by those for whom he is a spy.

Several years ago Murphy prevented a carefully-planned robbery of the hardware store of Harper & Reynolds by capturing a cripple who was acting as a lookout for the thieves. The man was named E. Worlow, and with former Police Officer and Capt. Bradish, Murphy captured the entire gang. The hardware store was in the city and in another hour would have turned the trick.

HERRING ACROSS THE TRAIL.

About What the Police Commissioners Have Concluded About Tom Savage Turning Informer.

Murphy are still to be heard on the underground wires of that secret service investigation that followed Tom Savage's vapors about the protection of vice in the tenderloin.

A greater portion of this investigation was conducted without the aid or assistance of the police department. Now it is claimed that the investigators were "easy marks," and that "the gang had been spotted before they were spotted." The police department, however, is not so sure of this. The police department is not so sure of this.

These instructions came to Mr. Bailey, the local manager. He was told to keep the news as gently as possible that the Pinkertons do not work the red lights nor divorce cases.

The next detective came from Salt Lake. The coyotes in the tenderloin say that his work was decidedly lumpy.

They had him on their string, according to their version, right from the start, and he spied out only what they purposely left on top of the lid.

These coyotes do not shrink at putting away a detective who is making men trouble; they say that they took pity on this investigator, and just strung him along to give some rest to the game.

Tom Savage, the lurid ex-boss, still stands pat on his first assertions, but his reputation for probity has not been materially increased by the attempted investigations. The police commissioners have about reached the conclusion that the wily politician simply drew a herring across the trail when they were getting too close to the Arlington.
